What Happens when a Conservative Threatens to Kill You

It's definitely the ugly side of conservatism that many of us are seeing today. I began my life as a Republican and because of people like Jodi Erickson and GodGraceNGuns @asideofbacon, I have slowly disassociated with the party. As many of you know, I've been writing about women in South Dakota that have been marginalized by the entrenched political party that has been in power for some time. Yesterday, after reading an article in US News & World Report by Peter Roff, I tweeted to him and, when I posted a request to speak to a juror from the Annette Bosworth trial, the following came back:

I don't ne... ith bullies. I know that I am just one of the many ...

I had braced my feet against the seat in front and was holding to the back....." He...and another man succeeded in dragging me out." - Ida B. Wells 1884

Our investigation shows that the unlicensed physician assistant had applied for a license nearly a year before Dr. Bosworth was cited. Please confirm?

The amount of misinformation that has been passed along about Annette Bosworth is astounding. After questioning Jodi Erickson, she asked me to DM her.

gossip and innuendo that feeds the fears of a group, taking a once respected woman and ostracizing her from her community.

Who will be charged, SOS Gant for selling them for commercial use or Heidelberger, who used and continue to use the Bosworth petitions for commercial use. He has certainly referred to himself as the press and it was used on his commercial site, gain more traffic, more attention, etc.

Bosworth's letter put her squarely in the crosshairs of a very powerful group, but even Bosworth could not have anticipated what was in store for her. Less than 30 days after the Op-Ed appeared, she found her license in jeopardy.

Jackley's assertion that Morgan and Bosworth's actions were the same left many uncomfortable. Butch Morgan was the former chairman of St. Joseph County's Democratic Party who, "allegedly gave orders that others followed out of a fear that they would lose their jobs."

There are too many men speaking very loudly for the women in South Dakota. It's time to step out of the shadows, because you are beautiful and it's time someone made sure you were told.

Off the record, and maybe this is all hearsay. But local politics is local, and I believe everyone who has known her. I have known her since birth. And I know the original Dr's and nurses she worked with. I also know her family says she is mentally ill. I think the judge even said something. The whole town knows this. Has known this. I get for you on paper it looks one way, but there is a reason SD politicians are keeping far away. Ask Kristi Noem why she isn't defending her. I know in her first practice She prescribed an anti psychotic accidentally. I know this because the person is a family member. They didn't sue, but it was made aware to her partners. She messed up multiple serious things and was pushed out. She allegedly committed fraud and although it is probably really her husband, she there is a reason this went down like it did. Her claiming Janklow backed her at one point was completely fabricated. His son came out several times and said Bill didn't know Ann. She is a habitual liar. Why do you think she was the it girl in SD and then it quickly went down hill?

Wow, Herman Cain and Kristi Noem? Who knew it went so deep. @APLmom is Jodi Erickson who has a blog talk radio show on Altconradio. After debating her and agreeing with a friend who noticed she was wearing a flag as a scarf, I got at least a 100, no a 1000 people that she summoned with her evil shofar.

This is where we stop because during my deluge of tweets, I stumbled upon one young man who was being eaten alive by one of Bacon's and Erickson's following. He was gay. The comments were vicious and followed by sheeples who retweeted and commented. I stopped and joined him and began commenting and letting him know that he was not allowed in the Twitter rage assaults.

I spent too much of my valuable time tweeting and commenting last night, too much time with these people who find great joy in tormenting others. I saw @apl mom post a comment to one of her followers that they should make up a fake DM about me:

Turns out the entire cast last night came from Altconradio, including the boss, who took time from his busy schedule to tell me to make him a sandwich and found time to attack. Looks like they're prospering. But like any group or person who holds to extreme views, they aren't very bright. @AsideofBacon thinks I haven't blocked her because I want to talk to her. It is in fact, the best part of my book on Annette Bosworth. The continued feed shows the power of media and how opinions can be skewed and people with certain belief systems triggered into attacking others. They are the ones who claim to be #Godloving, but apparently we've been reading different Bibles.

I took some time to Google the identity of @AsideofBacon, I suggest you do the same. Do not comment, don't tweet, just remember that people like this exist and it is our duty as human beings to step in every once in while and remind the victim of the day, that humanity is not lost and for us the great fortune is that those with hollow spirits all seem to find each other. I think that is God's great handiwork:)
